PREFACE.

The Registers of the extensive parish of St. Mary's, Leicester, are contained in upwards of thirty volumes, and commence in 1600, all earlier records of the parish having long since disappeared. The first volume is a thick book bound in vellum, measuring 16½ by 6 inches. It consists of 144 leaves of parchment, a few of which are blank, and contains upwards of 10,600 entries of baptisms, marriages and burials from 1600 to 1738 inclusive. This Register has been transcribed, and is here printed, forming the first Register so far issued by the Parish Register Society for Leicestershire. A leaf of parchment at the beginning of the volume contains a few imperfect entries and the following list of vicars and other clergy who officiated at St. Mary's during the greater part of the period covered by the Register:—

JOHN BONET, 1618, buried 1632.

JOHN WILLOWES, 1632, buried 1654.

WILLIAM CROFT, 1640.

—— HOLDEN, 1648.

—— PESTELL, 1658.

JOSIAH BOND, dec^d 1679.

THEOPHILUS TAPPER, Curate, 1680.

WILLIAM FOX, Curate, 1683.

,, ,, Vicar, 1688.

The entries for 1600 were evidently copied from another source when the present book was purchased, and with the entries for 1601 are recorded and headed separately. From 1602 to 1607 all classes of entries are mixed as they appear in this volume, but they are again separate throughout from 1608 to 1738, although not in strict chronological order. So intricate is the order of the entries from 1608 (later ones being placed before earlier ones in several places), that it has been found necessary to give baptisms, marriages and burials from 1608 in separate series and in chronological order. Besides this, the entries have been somewhat condensed to a more concise and uniform phrasing, care being taken, however, in all cases to adhere to the original spelling of names, and to record verbatim entries of unusual interest.*

With the exception of the period of the Civil Wars of Charles I., and a few years during the interregnum, 1642—1653, the entries in this early Register are tolerably complete and for the most part well written. Some few entries, however, at the commencement are almost illegible, whilst the handwriting in several places, more especially between 1670 and 1680, is somewhat difficult to decipher.

The Plague visited the parish in 1610 and continued for some time, as will be seen from the letters "p." and "b.p." appearing before the entries of many of those buried at that period. So fearful was the epidemic in 1610 and 1611 that hundreds of the inhabitants of this and other parishes in the town, including in some cases whole families, were carried to the grave in a few weeks. At the end of the burial entries for 1617 is a curious entry of a licence granted by John Bonet, then Vicar of the parish, to two well-known parishioners, to eat flesh during Lent on account of their great age and weakness.

Of the more important families whose names frequently appear in the Register may be mentioned the Abneys, a branch of the Derbyshire family, of Willesley Hall, several of whom were buried in the chancel of St. Mary's; the

* It should be remembered that throughout the period covered by this printed Register, 1600-1738, the year was reckoned as beginning on March 25th instead of January 1st.

Rudings, once owners of Westcotes; the Watts', of Leicester, Bellfounders; and the Watts', of Dannets Hall. The earlier part of the Register contains a few entries relating to the Caves and Hastings. Other well-known Leicester names, such as Billers, Chippingdale, Johnson, Ludlam, Sherman, Stafford, Stephens, etc., frequently occur.

It will be found that some additional entries and particulars from the Bishops' Transcripts preserved in the Archdeaconry Registry at Leicester, are embodied in the pages of this volume, to which due reference is made.

The thanks of this Society are due to the Rev. James Mountain, late Vicar of St. Mary's, Leicester, for his kind permission to allow the Register to be transcribed for printing purposes, and to John Rudledge Abney, Esq., Counsellor-at-Law, of New York, a descendant of the Leicester Abneys, who generously defrayed the expense of the transcript.

"Whereas a lycence in the beginninge of Lent was granted by mee, John Bonett, minister of the parish of St. Maryes in Lester, to the Ladie Barbara Hastings of the Newarke next adjoyning to the parish aforsade and another the same time to John Chippingdale, Doctor of Law, of the Newarke aforesaide, to lycence them in respect of their great age and weake estate to eat flesh. And those lycences to endure for one weeke only. Now because it appeareth that the necessitie of theire healthes requireth a continuance of the sade lycences: Know ye therefore that I, the saide John Bonett, do lycence the saide Ladie Hastings and John Chippingdale to eat flesh at their pleasure during the whole Lent according to a statute in that case provided. In witness whereof I have caused it to be regestred in the church booke under the hands of me the minister aforesaide and one of the churchwardens, as the statute requires, the 26 of Februarie in the yeare of Christ according to the computation of the church of England, 1618.

By me, John Bonet, minister of St. Maryes in Lester and curate there ×."

A Digest of the Parish Registers

WITHIN THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER,

Issued by the Committee of Parish Registers,

By Authority of the WORCESTER DIOCESAN CONFERENCE.

This Digest has been prepared under the direction of a Committee appointed at the Diocesan Conference, held at Birmingham, in 1896, and has been completed from the original Returns supplied by the Incumbents of the Parishes within the Diocese. The dates when each Volume of Registers commence and end, the number of leaves, material on which they are written, and the size and general condition, are all clearly stated under each parish.

Added to all this useful information is a table showing for what years in every parish the Bishops' Transcripts, previous to 1700, are now in existence in Edgar Tower, Worcester.

As only a limited number of copies has been printed, early application is necessary to secure a copy.

A Supplement to How to Write the History of a Family,

By W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

The First and Second Editions have been long since quite exhausted. Much additional information of practical value has been gathered together since the handbook was issued, and this has been put together in the form of a separate supplement, so that it may be available for the possessors of each edition. The supplement matches the original work.

It contains amongst other matter a Chapter for Beginners, Chapters on Scotch and Irish Genealogy and Records, which have been revised by Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, and the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, Ireland, and revised Lists of Probate Registries (England, Scotland, and Ireland) and Marriage Licenses, etc.
